GENERAL RULES

1. In order to participate in this race, you must fully understand and agree to the following conditions and responsibilities.
2. You are required to abide by the municipal regulations and Japanese laws and are expected to conduct yourself in a responsible manner at all times during the race.
3. The FUJI100mi is a race that requires racers to run through mountainous terrain both during the day and at night. While the race organizer will try its best to minimize unforeseen risks, it is ultimately your responsibility to avoid any dangers and to ensure your own safety during the race. As such, you are expected to have the technical skills, knowledge, equipment, physical endurance, and self-management skills to deal with any issues that may arise during this type of race including severe weather conditions (e.g. low temperatures, strong winds, rain and snow). Your actions and any outcomes that may result are your responsibility. In the outdoors environment, racers are usually the first to come across other racers in an accident. All racers are expected to help each other and ensure safety during the race.
4. The race course will be marked with marking tapes and signs. However, you are responsible for finding and following these course markings on your own and for staying on the race course. You are also responsible for finding your own way back using the course maps provided if you end up straying off the race course. If you find yourself off the race course, do not call the race 'headquarters' emergency number unless it is really an emergency. That call may prevent someone else from making a truly necessary call.
5. You are responsible for checking the official updates provided by the race organizer both before and during the race. Please follow the instructions provided.
6. You must always respect the environment and other people with whom we share the trails.
7. The race organizer will prepare the race course, equipment and where necessary, place staff along the course in order to properly execute the race. The organizer will also provide emergency and medical support during the race.
8. All aid stations will have an emergency medical tent where there will be a doctor and nurse on standby to provide medical assistance. Please note that only emergency first-aid can be provided at these tents.

RACE RULES & REGULATIONS

RACER RESPONSIBILITIES & CONDITIONS

If you do not abide by these rules, you may be immediately disqualified or have a penalty of 1, 3 or 6 hours added to your race time. Participation in future races may also be denied.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION RULES

We agree with the main objectives of the Green Charter of the International Trail Running Association (ITRA) and set the following rules for nature conservation.

1. The use of trekking poles is prohibited on the entire race course. Picking up and using tree branches as trekking poles is also not allowed.
2. Sleeping along the course is prohibited. This is because it will have a large impact on the environment and may also mistakenly lead others to think that you are in distress and require emergency medical assistance.
3. You must stay on the trail at all times. Do not step off the trail to shortcut corners. There will also be several "no passing" sections in environmentally restricted areas where you will not be allowed to pass other racers.
4. Picking up or damaging plants, animals, fungi and rocks found along the race course as well as within the overall race area are prohibited.
5. NEVER throw garbage along the course.
6. The Mt. FUJI100 race aims to minimize garbage and carbon dioxide emissions. To achieve this, the organizer is reducing the use of printed materials and disposable items whenever possible.
7. Please use the toilets located at each aid station. Also, please carry and use a portable/disposable toilet and use it if you are unable to wait. Do not throw away toilet paper along the trails. Please remember to take all toilet paper and waste with you.
8. During the race, even there may be no problems in terms of racer safety, if the trails are determined not to be able to withstand the use of many racers at once, a walking section may be set up, the course may be changed or the race may be cancelled.
9. Please wash the soles of your shoes to clean off any dirt, seeds, or vegetation before the start of the race. This is to prevent the spread of invasive species and non-native seeds and to prevent vegetation from urban areas from being carried up into the environmentally sensitive mountain regions. The race staff will provide brushes. Follow their instructions and use these brushes to remove dirt and seeds from the soles of your shoes.
10. We will establish a "Code of Conduct and Considerations" for the sustainable operation of the race in consideration of the natural environment, and conduct environmental monitoring surveys on the course before and after the race to assess the impact on the trails.

CONSIDERATION FOR OTHERS

1. If during the race, you encounter another racer/staff member who is injured or sick and unable to move on their own, please give priority to assisting that person and immediately call the race headquarters for emergency assistance. The emergency telephone number is printed on your race bib. Before calling the race headquarters, please check the bib number of the person in distress and tell it to the emergency staff who answer your call. If the bib number cannot be found or when assisting a non-racer, please check the person's gender and color of the clothes. This helps the race organizer to smoothly handle the situation.
2. If you come across a runner who is lying down or hunched over along the course, please check to see if they are alright. If the person requires emergency assistance, please give priority to helping that person by calling race headquarters for assistance.
3. The race course is not on private property owned by the race and will not be closed off to the general public. The trails must be shared with the general public (e.g. hikers) at all times. There will be "no passing sections" set up along the race course where you will be prohibited from passing other racers and hikers. In areas where passing is allowed, please do so in a safe place where the trail is wide enough. Please be considerate and slow down or walk when passing other people. Remember to call out to the person to let your presence be known. The same rule applies to courses in urban areas. Stay on sidewalks whenever there is a sidewalk.
4. Please be careful not to damage property located along the race course.
5. Parts of the race course passes through privately-owned lands that are normally closed off. When you are in these special sections, please make sure you stay within the designated race area.
6. The course also passes through residential areas. Please do not make loud noises or sounds when passing through these areas. Also put away your bear bells and prevent them from ringing when passing through "no-bear bells" sections.

AUTHORITY GIVEN TO EMERGENCY & MEDICAL STAFF

1. Doctors and rescue staff have the authority to stop a runner from continuing the race if he/she believes a racer is unfit to safely continue. Instructed to stop by a race physician or rescuer, you must return your IC chip to a staff member. They may mark your bib to indicate that you have withdrawn from the race.
2. The organizers reserve the right to stop the race and place racers in their vehicles if they are running before a cut-off point after the cut-off time (including the finish time) has elapsed. Racers must follow the instructions of the organizer.

IC CHIPS

1. Runners are kept track of using IC chips and sensor mats on the ground. The race organizer will be tracking racer times, number of racers out on the course as well as whether or not you've entered/left aid stations and checkpoints.
2. You must always have an IC chip attached to each of your shoes (both the right foot and left foot).
3. Do not wear two IC chips by stacking them on top of each other.
4. Please return your IC chips in the IC Clip Return Box at the finish venue.
5. If you are disqualified or decide to drop out of the race, please return your IC chips at the aid station.

CUTOFF TIMES & TIME MEASUREMENT

1. There will be two separate cutoff times at each aid station - one at the entrance and one at the exit. (This is a safety measure put in place to ensure racers coming into the aid station close to the entrance cutoff time have sufficient time to replenish their food/drink supplies before heading out on the course again.) You will not be allowed to continue the race if you don't make either of these cutoff times.
2. You can re-enter an aid station after leaving but please notify race staff and use the dedicated pathway to go back in. Once you re-enter, you must leave the aid station before the exit cutoff time in order to continue racing.
3. Cutoff times may be changed due to weather and course conditions. Changes will be announced on the official bulletin boards at the aid stations, and an email will be sent to the email address you registered when you entered.

RACE COURSE GUIDES, MARKERS AND SIGNS

1. Permission has been obtained from the appropriate land owners and property managers to put up temporary signs and marking tapes. The race course will be marked using marking tapes and signs. Marking tapes will be placed approximately every 100 m along the course and extra markings will be placed in sections where it may be easy to get lost. If you do not see a marking tape after proceeding for over 200m, it means you've gone off course. Please turn back and return to the race course.
2. The race organizer will be putting forth its best effort to minimize any unforeseen risks along the course. Dangerous areas will be marked with signs and ropes in order to reduce risk. Please follow all instructions provided. Where deemed necessary, staff and security guards will also be positioned along the course to ensure racer safety and direct the flow of traffic.
3. There will be staff and security guards standing along the course to help direct the way, however it is your responsibility to follow the course markers and signs to stay on the correct route.
4. There will be a "no-passing" section as well as other sections with specific rules/conditions. Please abide by these rules.
5. Once the race starts, any necessary information for racers will be posted on the official bulletin board at the aid stations. Important updates will also be sent to you via your email address you provided to the race. It is the racer's responsibility to check the official bulletin boards at the aid, as well as your email.

WITHDRAWING FROM THE RACE

1. If you feel that you can no longer continue and decide to withdraw from the race, you must tell aid station staff that you are dropping out. Please note that if you withdraw at the F7/K3 Nijyumagari, you may have to wait for a long time. Supporters, friends, and family members are not allowed to pick you up by car.
2. Withdrawing on the race course: You may only withdraw from the race along the race course if it is an emergency and/or you are injured and cannot move on your own. In such a case, please contact the emergency race headquarters immediately for assistance and follow their instructions.
3. Stay on the course: If you cannot move on your own and cannot call the emergency rescue headquarters, be sure to stay on the course (or within a clearly visible distance from the course).

The chance that sweepers or other racers will find you will drastically increase as long as you stay on the course. Staying on the course will be your last resort to protect your safety.

- *1 Starting from the 2026 race, you can download map data to your mobile phone. However, ensure that you can refer to the map while speaking with the race headquarters in case of an emergency.
 - *2 Bring strong tape that can be used during emergencies such as injuries (e.g. broken bones) as well as emergency repairs (e.g. broken equipment).
 - *3 If you run out of portable/disposable toilets during the race, replacements are available at the aid stations.
 - *4 Warm clothing for the upper body means mid-layer clothing such as fleece jackets, wool sweaters and light-weight down jackets that create a layer of warm air between you and the fabric. A thin underwear is not allowed.
 - *5 Wool or polyester knit hat that provides warmth.
- * The mandatory equipment list provided here is only the minimum. You will be running in harsh conditions for two days and one nights so please make sure that you are well-prepared to manage protect your own safety and well-being and bring additional gear you need to protect yourself.
- * We will strive to dispatch a rescue team to reach a runner who needs assistance due to extreme fatigue or injury on the course within 3 hours. However, it may take much more time if we receive several rescue requests all at once, or if you've strayed off the race course or if the weather conditions are bad. In such cases, it could take more than 6 hours to reach you. Given this, please bring enough clothing and equipment with you to protect yourself from the cold wind and freezing rain for more than 6 hours.

●STRONGLY RECOMMENDED EQUIPMENT

The mandatory equipment list is not necessarily enough for all racers. What you need differs depending on a racer's skill, physical level, weather during the race, etc. It is up to you to determine what is necessary for you and it is your responsibility to bring additional gear that you will need to safely complete the race. Make sure you've tested all of your gear under sub-zero conditions up in the mountains, in heavy rain and over long runs so that you know for sure whether your gear is sufficient to protect you. The following is a list of strongly recommended equipment.

- | | |
|------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1. Trail running shoes | 4. Change of clothes |
| 2. Compass | 5. Cash |
| 3. Bear bell (*1) | 6. GPS tracker (IBUKIGPS) (*2) |

- *1 Bear bells are a very annoying noise for local residents, day or night. In residential areas, bear bells are prohibited and signs stating "No Bear Bells" will be posted, so please refrain from ringing them.
- *2 This is a GPS tracker that allows you to check the current location of runners in near real time. It can be viewed by anyone during the race. Optional rentals will be available at the event, and those who apply will be given the device at a special booth at the event registration venue.
Simply turning it on and wearing it will allow supporters to transmit their location information. If supporters are using "IBUKI" while waiting for runners, they can move and prepare with ease, and enjoy themselves while they wait. It can also be used to inform family and friends who were unable to be there to cheer on the runners of their current location.

OTHER RULES AND PROHIBITED ACTIONS

1. The only type of earphones allowed during race is the type that lets you hear your surroundings.
2. Cheating is prohibited, this includes using vehicles, using substitute runners, and violating laws and rules.

RACE ORGANIZER'S RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The race organizer is responsible for any non-deliberate damage by race participants to property along the race course (e.g. plants and animals, objects, trails, etc.).
